Dear Harold:

Am most distressed by the OUI piece, as you know, and only wish I had enough clout to do something about it. Let me know what Jim Lesar is going to do; I'll tell Terry Catchpole what I think of their dumb juxtapositioning -- whatever ex post facto good that'll do.

Meanwhile, I'm glad Bob got to you by phone, as I think you helped clarify that little sequence. I do think you will not be unpleased by our paperback.

Here's my $10.75 for Post-Mortem. I'll be looking forward to reading it.

Hope '76 will be a healthier year. To think you and Nixon share the same physical ailment must be offensive to you.

Peace.
